Background

To better serve clients as an international accounting firm, we are adopting the “ASA” brand aiming for a better global recognition. The term “Professionals” reflects our dedication to specialist expertise and the strength of our multi-disciplinary team.

Guidance

Invoices, contracts and other documents will be updated progressively to reflect the new names.

All services and contract terms will remain the same; existing agreements continue to be valid.

Our email address domain will be changed with effect from October 1, 2025.
